2. Why do elders gather under the banyan tree in Chandan's village?

Ans. In Chandan's village elders gather under the banyan tree to talk each other.

3. What is Van Mahotsav? Why is it celebrated?

Ans. Van Mahotsav is a festival of planting trees. It is celebrated every year in India in the first week of July. It is celebrated to:-

- *Encourage people to plant more trees
- *Spread awareness about the importance of forests
- *Protect the environment and wildlife
- *Reduce pollution and keep the Earth green.

4. What lesson do we learn from ants and bees about living together?

Ans. We learn the lesson of teamwork and cooperation from ants and bees. They show us that when everyone does their work properly and helps each other, the whole community becomes strong and happy. Just like them, humans should also share responsibilities, work together, and care for one another to live peacefully.

5. Why is it important to have places like schools and hospitals in a locality?

Ans. Places like schools and hospitals are very important in a locality because they help people live a safe, healthy, and better life.

1. Education (Schools):

Schools help children learn reading, writing, and other important skills. Education makes people knowledgeable and helps them get good jobs in the future.

2. Health Care (Hospitals):

Hospitals take care of sick and injured people. Doctors and nurses help people recover and stay healthy.

3. Saves Time and Effort:

When schools and hospitals are nearby, people don't have to travel far. This saves time, money, and energy.
