

Wada Nirmitti Education Society's
GURUKUL GLOBAL SCHOOL
WORKSHEET
LESSON: 3. The Determiners

SUB: English Grammar

STD: VII

NAME: _____ ROLL No: _____

DATE: _____

Part A: Kinds of Determiners

I. Identify the kind of determiner used in each sentence:

(Articles, Demonstratives, Quantifiers, Possessives, Interrogatives)

1. These books are very old. _____
2. Whose pencil is this? _____
3. She has some idea about the topic. _____
4. An owl hooted in the dark. _____
5. My brother lives in Mumbai. _____

II. Fill in the blanks using correct determiners:

1. I don't have _____ money left. (some/any)
2. She bought _____ umbrella and _____ raincoat. (a/an/the)
3. _____ students were absent today. (Many/Much)
4. _____ of the apples are rotten. (All/Each)
5. Is this _____ book or yours? (your/our/my)

Part B: Error Correction

III. Correct the errors in determiners:

1. I saw a elephant in the zoo.
2. He has many knowledge about science.
3. These house is very old.
4. Have you seen the Rahul's bag?

